THE STORY SO FAR...

BECTU is the main backstage and front-of-house union that negotiates on behalf of workers across London's theatres - stage technicians, carpenters, cleaners, dressers, electricians, stage door keepers, workers in box office, front-of-house, wardrobe and wigs.

The last negotiated pay settlement ran from October 2014 to October 2017. Having consulted with union members in May, BECTU submitted a pay claim. Your BECTU reps and officials have been in talks with the employers' body SOLT ending up in deadlock at ACAS last week. This tends to happen every pay round but now it's crunch time - we need to hear from you:

COME TO THE MEETING AND HAVE YOUR SAY!

If you are not yet a member, come to the meeting and join. How long can you afford to stand by and let others decide your pay and conditions?

Monday
16th October
3 - 4pm
St Anne's Church
55 Dean Street
W1D 6AF

To join online, please go to www.bectu.org.uk/join

The cost of union membership is £10 per month for the first year or 1% of your gross monthly pay, whichever is the lesser.
