

Starting safely

Course duration: 2 hours 40 minutes

This is a Production Safety Passport approved short course and comes with an industry certificate, valid for five years.

The course is aimed at entry-level employees and freelancers in the TV and film industry. It is interactive and includes multi-choice assessments.

The course encourages delegates to be proactive in their own safety and the safety of others. It will raise your awareness of your safety responsibilities; and provide you with an understanding on specific workplace hazards, your scope and responsibility for rectifying risks, their impact, and how to control them.
