

BENEFITS AND SERVICES FOR MEMBERS

LEGAL SERVICES

At work

Prospect members have access to a range of legal services for work and non-work related issues.

The union offers advice and assistance on issues like: contracts of employment, discrimination, family rights, unfair dismissal and redundancy. All workplace and other legal assistance is offered at the discretion of the union, and is decided on the facts and merits of each case.

If appropriate, Prospect will represent members in legal cases in employment tribunals or the courts.

Prospect's personal injury scheme provides high-quality legal advice if you're injured or fall ill because of the negligence of a third party.

Outside work

Prospect also offers:

- a 24-hour legal helpline on non-work matters
- clinical negligence advice – initial advice on claims from our solicitors
- advice on defamation – initial advice from our solicitors
- welfare benefits advice – and representation at tribunals, where appropriate
- a range of other discounted legal services.

Legal services for your family

Most non-work related benefits, including the personal injury scheme and the Legal helpline advice service, are also available to the member's partner, spouse or children under the age of 19.

CAREERS

Career and personal development

Prospect offers a range of free and low-cost personal and career development resources, including access to www.careersmart.org.uk which offers impartial information on a range of subjects, including career progression, pensions, self-employment and CV writing.

The site also includes a skills career audit, salary calculator and checker and career development podcasts.

Higher education discounts

A number of universities and colleges offer course discounts for union members. These include Birkbeck, University of London and the National Extension College.

Engineering jobs

Members looking for a career in the advanced manufacturing and engineering sector can register for free with Prospect partner, Talent Retention Solution.

ABOUT OUR SERVICES

Some of our services, such as our benevolent fund and death benefit scheme, are provided by Prospect itself – see bit.ly/prospect-benefits.

Others are delivered by third parties on the union's behalf. Prospect Plus includes two price promises: the national price promise is that Prospect Plus is the best possible price in the UK. The provider price promise means that the offer is the best possible from that particular company. Income from members' use of some of the services is used to finance the union's benevolent fund.

PROSPECT PLUS

Prospect is proud to now offer you access to Prospect Plus* – a great scheme that will save you money on lifestyle, motoring, travel, insurance, shopping and business.

Many of these services come with a national price promise or provider price promise.

These are just a few of the offers available to Prospect members. See the full range of savings and limited, time-special offers at bit.ly/prospect-plus (member log in required).

Cinema tickets

We're delighted to offer you up to 40% off your cinema tickets. You can use this discount at major cinema chains and local picture houses including Vue and Odeon. You can take advantage of this discount as often as you want.

Discounts vary between venues, please check when purchasing vouchers. You have to register with The Cinema Society for this discount.

My Gym Discounts
