SECTION 1) PUBLIC AND PRODUCTS LIABILITY

THE BUSINESS

This policy is operative whilst you undertake

- 1) any activity related to your individual employment or engagement within broadcasting, entertainment, cinema, theatre, live events and video games development, or
- 2) any activity related to your employment as an art technician, curator or conservator or
- 3) Any activity related to your employment as a fashion assistant within media, fashion and live events.
- 4) Any activity related to your individual engagement as a Bectu Student member within broadcasting, entertainment, cinema, theatre, live events and video games development. If you employ or engage others you should consider Employers' Liability and additional Public Liability cover.

WHAT IS COVERED – KEY FEATURES

If, as a result of your Business, any party brings a claim against you for

- a) bodily injury or property damage occurring during the period of insurance or
- b) personal injury or denial of access committed during the period of insurance,

Insurers will indemnify you against the sums you have to pay as compensation. This includes a claim against any employee when they are acting on your behalf in whatever capacity. Insurers will also pay defence costs but will not pay costs for any part of a claim not covered by this section.

Claims against principals

If, as a result of your Business, any party brings a claim against any party with whom you have entered into a contract or agreement in connection with your Business; and you are liable for that claim, Insurers will treat such claim as if it had been made against you and make the same payment to such party that they would have made to you subject to the terms of the policy.

Additional Cover

This policy also includes claims for:

- Abuse or molestation claims
- Overseas personal liability
- Cross liabilities
- Criminal proceedings costs
- Loss of third-party keys
- Failure to secure third-party premises
- Unauthorised use of third-party telephones by your employees
- Cover for Defective Premises Act liability
- Court attendance compensation

Please refer to the Policy Document for full details of these covers.

SPECIAL CLAUSES

Member

Members covered by this policy are defined as follows:

- 1) Any current Bectu Extra member legally resident in the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man;
- 2) A limited company as defined under the Companies Act 1985 operating in connection with The Business where the Policyholder is the sole employee and director other than one additional director who is a family member and engaged in clerical duties only; or
- 3) Any partnership in respect of work performed under a formal partnership arrangement with any party who is also a member of Bectu Extra registered under this policy, providing that they maintain their membership or subscription payments to Bectu Extra.

Third Party Property Clause

Applicable to all insured members other than fashion assistants

Insurers will pay for damage to property held in trust by you or in your custody or control in connection with the Business.

Insurers will not make any payment for any claim where

- the damage is to property owned, leased, hired or rented to you
- the damage happened when the property was held in trust or in the custody or control of any other person
- indemnity is provided by another insurance policy
- the damage is to property which requires to be insured under the terms of Clause 6.5.1 of the Standard Form of Building Contract issued by the Joint Contracts Tribunal or a clause of similar intent under other contract conditions.

The most Insurers will pay is:

- 1) £25,000 for each such claim, excluding defence costs; and
- 2) £100,000 per Insured during the period of insurance, excluding defence costs.

The claims excess is £500.

Applicable to fashion assistants

Insurers will pay for damage to property held in trust by you or in your custody or control in connection with the Business.

Insurers will not make any payment for any claim where

- the damage is to property owned, leased, hired or rented to you
- the damage happened when the property was held in trust or in the custody or control of any other person

- indemnity is provided by another insurance policy
- the damage is to property which requires to be insured under the terms of Clause 6.5.1 of the Standard Form of Building Contract issued by the Joint Contracts Tribunal or a clause of similar intent under other contract conditions.
- for any damage to Jewellery

PRINCIPAL CONDITIONS

Claims procedure

You must notify Insurers promptly of any claim or anything which may give rise to any claim against you.

You must notify Insurers immediately and in any event within seven days of any claim for bodily injury or abuse or molestation. At Insurers request, you must confirm the facts in writing within 30 days with as much information as is available.

You should make this notification directly to bectuextra@hencilla.co.uk &/or liability.claims@hiscox.com or by post to:

UKSC Liability Claims,
The Hiscox Building,
Peasholme Green,
York
YO1 7PR.

When dealing with a third party, you must not admit that you are liable for what has happened or make any offer, deal or payment, unless you have our prior written agreement. If you do, we may reduce any payment we make under this section by an amount equal to the detriment that we have suffered as a result.

Reasonable Precautions

You must take reasonable steps to prevent accident or injury and to protect your property against loss or damage.

You must keep any property insured under this policy in good condition and repair.

Insurers will not make any payment under this policy in respect of any incident occurring whilst you are not in compliance with this condition unless you can demonstrate that such non-compliance could not have increased the risk of the loss, damage, accident or injury occurring in the circumstances in which it occurred.
